READ CAREFULLY BEFORE FILLING UP YOUR DECLARATION

Who needs to file the Declaration of Goods by Travellers:

Travellers carrying more than R$ 10,000 in cash or the equivalent in other currencies must file the DBV and present it to the customs authorities for validation, when leaving the country, prior to departure; upon arrival in the country, at the goods to declare channel.

It is NOT necessary to list:

- books, brochures and periodicals;
- goods for personal or professional use or consumption, used, in quantity and quality consistent with the length and purpose of your stay abroad;
- goods purchased overseas, with a total value of up to US$ 500 (when travelling by air or ship), or up to US$ 300 (when travelling overland, by river or lake); and
- goods purchased in duty-free shops upon arrival in the country.

Goods subject to special taxation (intended to remain in the country):

Exceeded the above-mentioned limits and simultaneously observed the quantity limits, the excess value will be taxed at a 50% rate. The allowances are personal and can be used only once every 30 days.

Quantity limits (for goods intended to remain in the country):

- The taxation above only applies to goods that do not exceed the following quantity limits:
- alcoholic beverages: a total of 12 litres;
- cigaretttes: a total of 10 packets, containing 20 units each;
- cigars or cigarillos: a total of 25 units;
- tobacco: a total of 250 grams;
- goods not listed in the previous items, with a per-unit value of less than US$ 10 (when travelling by air or ship), or US$ 5 (when travelling overland, by river or lake): a total of 20 units, provided there are no more than 10 identical units; and
- goods not listed in the previous items: a total of 20 units (if by air or ship), or 10 units (if overland, by river or lake), provided there are no more than 3 identical units.
